

The Dictionary Society of North America

welcomes proposals for papers for its

18th Biennial Conference

at McGill University in Montreal, Quebec, Canada

Wednesday, 8 June – Saturday, 11 June 2011

The 18th Biennial Meeting of the Dictionary Society of North America will be held at McGill University in Montreal, Quebec, Canada. The program will begin with a reception on the evening of Wednesday, 8 June and will run through Saturday, 11 June. McGill Library's Rare Books and Special Collections Department will be preparing an exhibit based on their lexicography holdings, which include early North American First Nations language dictionaries and glossaries, and mono- and bilingual works in French and English.

Those wishing to present papers (no longer than 20 minutes) should send 250-word abstracts to Lise Winer at lise.winer@mcgill.ca no later than 15 January 2011. Abstracts for papers on any topic relating to the history, theory, or practice of lexicography are welcome. Abstracts for papers about bilingual lexicography are especially encouraged, as are suggestions for panels, roundtables and other presentation formats. Queries by mail should be sent to Lise Winer, Faculty of Education, McGill University, 3700 McTavish, Montreal, Quebec H3A 1Y2 CANADA.
